CASE REPORT

NARRATIVE

Officer Zabala Case#18-43374 Assault
On 11/18/18 at around 0900 hours, I was working patrol for the City of Kirkland when I arrived at Fairfax hospital, 10200 NE 132nd Street in Kirkland reference an assault. The reporting party, reported that he was punched in the face by another patient at the facility on 11/17/18. Upon arrival, I was escorted by staff and met with provided the following accounts;
told me that he is a patient at the hospital. On 11/17/18 at around 1700 hours, said that he was in the west wing of the facility along with other patients. told me that he started screaming because he was upset towards staff by taking away some of his privileges at the facility. said that another patient later identified as said that another patient later identified as said that he felt pain afterwards. said that he did not fight back, and the staff separated them.
told me that he threatened after he was punched, but he did not carry out his threats to "kick his ass".
After speaking with I contacted was escorted to me by staff. was escorted to me by staff. were verbally identified himself which I then verified through staff and WACIC/NCIC. was in tears and crying as he told me that he was sorry for what he did.
When I asked what happened on the 11/17/18, which immediately told me that he punched because he thought he made "threats to him and to his wife". When asked, was unable to elaborate what was specifically said by the base added "he said he knew my wife". It is said that he tried to apologize to the said had not accept his apology.
advised that he is willing to assist in the prosecution. I provided my contact information to staff and requested a copy of the surveillance video of the incident. Both and are are on ITA hold at Fairfax hospital. Advised that he did not require any medical assistance after being punched.
Based on my training and experience, statements provided by both subjects, and the totality of the circumstances, I have probable cause to believe that assaulted
